16 Golden Rules

- Baha'i Faith: And if thine eyes be turned towards justice, choose thou for thy neighbor that which thou choosest for thyself.
- Buddhism: Treat not others in ways that you yourself would find hurtful.
- Christianity: In everything you do, do to others as you would have them do to you; for this is the law and the prophets.
- Confucianism: One word which sums up the basis of all good conduct ... loving kindness. Do not do to others what you do not want done to yourself.
- Hinduism: This is the sum of duty: do not do to others what would cause pain if done to you.
- Humanism: Humanists acknowledge human interdependence, the need for mutual respect and the kinship of all humanity.
- Igbo (Nigeria): We all drink from one cup and eat from one pot.
- Islam: Not one of you truly believes until you wish for others what you wish for yourself.
- Jainism: One should treat all creatures in the world as one would like to be treated.
- Judaism: What is hateful to you, do not do to your neighbour. This is the whole Torah; all the rest is commentary.
- Native American Spirituality: All things are our relatives; what we do to everything, we do to ourselves. All is really One.
- Shinto: The heart of the person before you is a mirror. See there your own form.
- Sikhism: I am a stranger to no one; and no one is a stranger to me. Indeed, I am a friend to all.
- Taoism: Regard your neighbor's gain as your own gain, and regard your neighbor's loss as your own loss.
- Wicca: An harm it none, do as ye will.
- Zoroastrianism: Whatever is disagreeable to yourself, do not do unto others.
